Course Description:

James the apostle, the brother of Jesus, was a great encouragement to Paul and his wisdom blessed and confirmed him in his ministry to the Gentiles.

“James is a short book tucked away near the back of the New Testament. Once you have skimmed its surface even slightly, you will wonder why James has not become the primary reader for every child of God who longs to know how true faith behaves. As the weeks go by, you will understand faith’s works.”

Faith works! James describes it as being doers of the word and not just hearers. As a matter of fact, James claims that “a man is justified by works and not by faith alone” (James 2:24) ... surprisingly?!?

James is definitely a book for us, the believers of the last days! He calls us to strengthen our hearts “for the coming of the Lord is near”!
