Course Description:

What an amazing and unique book! It is God's final word to His people in the Old Testament. There would be silence from God for 400 years after these words, until the first coming of Jesus the long-awaited Messiah.

Silence would follow these words!

So, what does the Lord say through Malachi, and why? What does He want His people to do? . . . to think about? . . . to remember?

The message of Malachi is as critical for us to understand as it was for Israel when the Lord first spoke through His messenger. We too are waiting for the Lord Jesus to come.

Application to God's people today could not be more needed!
