Course Description:

We are resuming our awe-inspiring look at the Church, the body of Christ, of which each true believer is a vital part!

The Church is an entity so unique, so extraordinary that the Scripture employs over a dozen metaphors or pictures to help our understanding of the meaning, the privilege and the implications of our place in it!

We will also continue to search the Scripture regarding the function and role of the local church within our disintegrating society as we eagerly await the coming of Jesus.

We will look to the Bible to inform and instruct us so that we may be protected from “doing church” in a way that is contrary to the will and prescription of our God, who purchased the Church with His own blood! (Acts 20:28)
