Course Description:

As we continue to deepen our understanding of our great salvation, we are now ready to tackle the spiritual disciplines—rites and personal activities that have been practiced by true believers since biblical times. We will be considering baptism, prayer, worship, spiritual gifts and warfare, bible study and more.

Jesus Himself modeled these disciplines for us and as we imitate Him and walk in His steps, these spiritual practices become the means by which we run after holiness and closeness to Christ!

Be challenged to discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness!
