Course Description:

"Then Jesus again spoke to them, saying, "I am the Light of the world; he who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the Light of life." John 8:12

As Jesus neared the end of His earthly life, He went to Jerusalem for the Feast of Booths and there declared to the nation that He is the Light of the World.

The claim of Jesus is one in a world of voices where everyone claims to be in the 'light', meaning they believe that they know what the truth is and understand things correctly.

But the claim of Jesus is different than all the others – He does not claim to simply know the truth; He claims that He is the Truth!

The reality is that, unless we come to Jesus, we remain in the dark and live our lives believing lies. So, what does it mean for Jesus to be the Light of the World? And what does this mean for those who follow Him?
