Course Description:

God had raised up the prophet Zechariah to give much needed hope to the remnant who had returned to Jerusalem from captivity in Babylon. God did this through a series of 8 visions that reassured Israel of His compassion and faithfulness to them. God would once again choose Israel and the city of Jerusalem promising that it would again be rebuilt.

But even more importantly they would be a redeemed people with God dwelling in their midst and a blessing to the nations. In God's faithfulness to Israel, we are reminded of His covenant commitment to us as well so that we too can live in these days with hope.
