

17. The death of Jesus is the power of the gospel for salvation to all who believe

(1 Co 1:18; Rom 1:16)

18. Jesus died and I was healed from my sin

(Isa 53:5-6; 1 Pet 2:24-25)

19. Jesus died for me and I received the forgiveness of my sins

- God removed my sins from me
- He wiped out my sins and He does not remember them

(Eph 1:7; Mt 26:28; Isa 43:25; Ps 103:12)

20. Jesus died and my conscience was cleansed
- no gift or sacrifice or worship I bring to God could perfect my conscience

(Heb 9:13-14; Heb 9:9-10)

21. Jesus' death resulted in my justification
- His blood cancelled out the guilt of my sin
- God declared my verdict: "NOT GUILTY"

(Rom 5:9; Rom 3:24; Rom 4:5)

22. Jesus' death released me from my sin and from my slavery to sin

(Rev 1:5-6; Jn 8:34; 1 Jn 3:6)

23. Jesus died and the slavery to the fear of death was broken

- His death removed the devil's one weapon: unforgiven sin

(Heb 2:14-15)

24. Jesus died and God gives to all who believe in Him eternal life

- what this fully implies remains to be revealed

(Jn 3:16; 1 Cor 2:9)

25. Jesus died to deliver me from this present evil age

- He rendered the devil powerless
- the evil one does not touch me

(Gal 1:4; Heb 2:14; 1 Jn 5:18)

26. Jesus' death was His obedience that became my righteousness

- my sin was cancelled out
- Jesus' righteousness was imputed to me

(Phil 2:8; Rom 5:19; 2 Cor 5:21)

27. Jesus died and I became united with Him in His death

- I died to sin and now live to righteousness
- I use the members of my body as instruments of righteousness

(Rom 6:5; 1 Pet 2:24; Rom 6:13)

28. Through Jesus' death, I died to the law in order to bear fruit for God

- I am not under law but under grace

(Rom 7:4; Rom 6:14)

29. Jesus died that I may no longer live for myself but for Him who died for my sake

(2 Cor 5:15)

30. Jesus died to set me free from all the futile ways of my forefathers

- futility = an empty, meaningless, unprofitable life that ends in destruction

(1 Pet 1:18-19)

31. Because of Jesus' death

- I am (now)

* being sanctified

* cleansing out leaven

- I have been

* perfected for all time

* made unleavened

(Heb 10:14; 1 Cor 5:7)

32. Jesus died so that I, who belong to Him, will be zealous to do good works

- I was saved not by but for good works
- my good works glorify my Father in heaven

(Titus 2:14; Eph 2:10; Mt 5:16)

33. Jesus died to enable me to live by faith in Him

- God gave me the faith that saved me
- He will keep me faithful to Him throughout my life

(Gal 2:20; Eph 2:8; Jer 32:40)

34. Jesus suffered and died in order to leave me an example to follow in His steps

- I am to have the same attitude of humility and selfless love

(1 Pet 2:19-21; Phil 2:5-8)

35. Jesus died to present me to Him holy and blameless and above reproach

(Eph 5:25-27; Col 1:22; Eph 1:4)
