SPIRITUAL GIFTS: 1 Corinthians 12-14

The Metaphor What are they? Who receives them? When? spiritual each one The Jesus is Church is the Head 4152 πνευματικός pneumatikos = spiritualities, spirituals the body of the = things of the Spirit or controlled of Christ Church by the Spirit (Eph 1:22-23) gifts Emphasis: 5486 χάρισμα charisma The church is a UNITY, one body = a favour bestowed or received The church is a DIVERSITY, → must without any merit many members > God has a mission for the spiritual gifts are supernatural church to perform in the world abilities given by God to believers ക്കൽ for service in the church, the body How are they given? of Christ - all the gifts are important - to one - one gift - spiritual gifts are NOT: each gift has its own function - to another - another gift salvation - by the Spirit there is no room for competition - fruit of the Spirit - character traits - all the gifts are necessary - the Spirit distributing talents - individually, as He wills - there is no room for - skills self-sufficiency – offices or jobs in the church - God placed the members in - there should be no divisions - general responsibilities of all the body as He desired believers nor any jealousy - pre-Church - they are NT God composed the body - all do not have the same gifts - there are varieties of - God no one has all the gifts a) of gifts – the same Spirit b) of ministries – the same Lord - there is no gift that all must have c) of effects - the same God - we - they are the manifestation of the Spirit all 5321 φανέρωσις phanerosis = a disclosure - there = a setting forth plainly – by = to cause something to be fully known they are